

2024-25 Partnership Support and Recognition

	Blue $2,500	Orange $5,000	Premier $10,000
• Investment in the overall success and career development of ECS students	✓	✓	✓
• Preferred placement and identification at fall and spring career fairs; priority scheduling of tabling/office hours during Career Week	✓	✓	✓
• Spotlight of current internship, co-op, & full-time opportunities through Handshake	✓	✓	✓
• Company logo on College website, digital signage in ECS buildings, and on all relevant event marketing materials	✓	✓	✓
• Support the Student Professional Development Fund which provides financial assistance for students to participate in professional and academic conferences or other professional development opportunities		✓	✓
• Invitation to participate in student engagement opportunities throughout the academic year including resume reviews, mock and actual interviews, networking events, and more		✓	✓
• Recognized sponsor of National Engineers Week (E-Week) student activities with an invitation to facilitate workshops and participate in a networking reception with students		✓	✓
• Support DEIA Initiatives including but not limited to panels, networking opportunities, and other initiatives hosted by the Office of Student Success & Career Services; including engagement with student leaders and members of NSBE, SHPE, SWE, SASE, and oSTEM			✓
• Opportunity to have company logo on shirts worn by student staff during their shifts and at events hosted by the Office of Student Success & Career Services (shirts need to be ordered by August 15th)			✓
• Annual Workforce Development meeting with the Dean/ECS Leadership and ECS Career Services staff			✓
• Support leadership and development initiatives hosted by the Office of Student Success & Career Services, including but not limited to the annual Student Leadership Conference held prior to the start of the academic year and regular wellness activities such as De-Stress Fest and study breaks			✓

All partners are encouraged to send company branded swag materials for brand awareness

Additional Opportunities to Partner with the ECS Office of Student Success & Career Services

Support a Student Organization

Partner with a specific student organization. Contact Jennifer Fazio to get the conversation started.

ECS Student Organizations:

Alpha Omega Epsilon (AOE)
American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA)
American Institute for Chemical Engineers (AIChE)
American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE)
The Biomedical Engineering Society (BMES)
Citrus Racing Formula S.A.E. Team (SAE)
Engineering World Health (EWH)
Innovate Orange/CuseHacks
National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE)
Orange Rocket Ballistics Team (ORBiT)
Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE)
Society of Women Engineers (SWE)
Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS) Club

Learn More About →
Student Organizations

No Cost Opportunities

Company informational tabling or drop-in office hours can be scheduled weekdays 10am-4pm as space is available.

Questions about ECS partnership options?

Jennifer Fazio

Assistant Director for Employer Relations & Career Services

jssquire@syr.edu

315-443-2371

The Employer Partnership Program focuses on offering organizations like yours opportunities to market, promote, and recruit on the Syracuse University campus. Program recognition is for a full year, July 1st - June 30th, and employers are invited to join on an annual basis beginning July 1st. We welcome memberships any time after July 1st; however partner recognition expires on June 30th.

College of Engineering
& Computer Science